

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT
Aug 24, 2007

The 1907 Race Riots & Beyond: A Century of TransPacific Canada—Sept 7 & 8 @ SFU

Anniversaries of Change presents a two-day community conference examining aspects of recent history omitted from official accounts. Jointly sponsored by University of Victoria, Simon Fraser University, and University of British Columbia, The 1907 Race Riots and Beyond: A Century of TransPacific Canada features papers and panel discussions focused on different aspects of the 1907 riot, including topics of migration, racism, transnationalism, gender, identity, and more. Participants include writers Larissa Lai and Rita Wong, media artist Dorothy Christian, historian Patricia Roy, and poet Roy Miki, along with scholars and community leaders from across North America. Located at SFU Harbour Centre, 515 W. Hastings, The 1907 Race Riots and Beyond is part of Anniversaries of Change's program of events and is open to the public free charge.

The 1907 Race Riots and Beyond: A Century of TransPacific Canada
Simon Fraser University—Harbour Centre, 515 W. Hastings

Friday September 7

Registration: 8:30 am (main concourse)

A. Concurrent sessions: 9:00–10:30

- Transnational Perspectives: From Guyana to Bellingham Room 1520
- Translocality, Gender & Identity Room 1510
- Mapping the 1907 Riot: 10:45–12:15 (Labatt Hall)

Lunch 12:15–1:00

B. Concurrent sessions 1:00–2:30

- Ongoing Research on the Vancouver/Bellingham Riots Labatt Hall
- Women, Resistance and Cultural/Community Activism Room 1520

C. Concurrent sessions 2:45–4:15

- The 1907 Riots: Reaction & Consequences Labatt Hall
- Actively Asian Canadian: Framing Issues, Transforming Questions Room 1520
- Next Steps 4:15–4:45 (Room 1510)

Saturday September 8

Room 1530 (all sessions)

9:00-10:30

The Chinese in Canada: a Century of Historical Change & Continuity
10:45-12:15

From Redress to Justice: Cross-Community Collaboration in Search of Social Change

Lunch 12:15–1:00

1:00-2:30

Catalyzing Agents: the Ethics of Doing "Asian Canadian"

For more information, contact:
Beverly Yhap, coordinator—778.232.3928
admin@anniversaries07.ca
www.anniversaries07.ca